XXI. CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK & PERSONAL HISTORY - (See also Sections IX.B and IX.C, above.)

A. Records Check. A check will be made of criminal conviction records for all adult Applicants of the household. Reports will be obtained from local and/or state records and may also include local Police records. If the Applicant has resided in a state other than California and has a past felony conviction, a report will be required from that state or federal organization. Generally, public records of this sort are only available for the past seven (7) years. However, if information becomes known during the screening process regarding criminal activity that happened before the past seven year period which could impact the Applicant household's eligibility to live at the property, the Management Agent reserves the right to consider this information as well. Serious felony offenses and or continued and ongoing criminal activity will be grounds for rejection if such offenses involve physical violence to persons or property, domestic violence, sexual abuse, manufacturing or sale of narcotics, illegal weapons possession, any form of assault, breaking and entering, burglary or drug related criminal offenses. The nature, severity and recency of such felony offenses and/or ongoing criminal activity will be considered when reviewing the Applicant and only those potentially impacting the health, safety, security or right to peaceful enjoyment of the property of and by other residents, visitors, employees will be considered. Arrests alone will not be considered grounds for rejection, but the conduct underlying arrests may constitute such grounds if criminal activity is indicated by related arrest reports, witness statements and/or other relevant documentation.

B. Additional Reasons for Rejection. Additionally, applicants may be rejected due to:

1. Previous Eviction from Assisted Housing for Drug-Related Criminal Activity. Any household containing a member(s) that has been evicted from federally assisted housing for drug-related criminal activity, unless that person has successfully completed an approved, supervised drug rehabilitation program or the circumstances leading to the eviction no longer exist (household member has moved out).

2. Illegal Use of Drugs. A household in which any member is currently engaged in illegal use of drugs or for which the owner has reasonable cause to believe that a member's illegal use or pattern of use of a drug may interfere with the health, safety, security or right to peaceful enjoyment of the property of and by other residents, visitors, employees.
 3. Reasonable Cause for Health and Safety Concern. Any household member, if there is reasonable cause to believe that a member's behavior, from abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol, may interfere with the health, safety, security, or peaceful enjoyment of other residents, visitors, employees and/or property.
- C. Consideration of Mitigating Factors. Consideration may be granted to Applicants with past nonviolent criminal records occurring ten or more years in the past with no further criminal record. Applicants will be provided the criminal background record and provided an opportunity to respond and to provide evidence of mitigating factors.

XXII. GENERAL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

HUD specifies that applicants be made aware of program requirements, including (but not limited to) the following:

- A. Interviews. All applicants will be interviewed by the site administrator or other representative of management. At the time of the interview, all members of the family must be in attendance. If this is not possible, a second interview to accommodate missing members will be scheduled. Documents or identification to determine family members' relationships may be requested.
- B. Agreement to Pay the Rent. The applicant must agree to pay the rent required by the formula used in the subsidy program under which the applicant will be admitted.
- C. Companion and Service Animals Policy. No animals will be allowed except animals required for physical or emotional assistance by a person who is disabled (e.g., a Seeing Eye dog or a dog for the deaf). Such an animal is not considered a pet, but will be subject to reasonable regulations.

All properties have a NO PET policy except those required to accept pets by HUD.

The following are allowed:

1. Companion Animals - The Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act protect the right of people with disabilities to keep emotional support animals, even when a landlord's policy explicitly prohibits pets. Because emotional support and service animals are not "pets," but rather are considered to be more like assistive aids such as wheelchairs, The Property will make an exception to its "no pet" policy so that a tenant with a disability can fully use and enjoy his or her dwelling. So long as the tenant has a letter or prescription from an appropriate professional, such as a therapist or physician, and meets the definition of a person with a disability, he or she is entitled to a reasonable accommodation that would allow an emotional support animal in the apartment.
2. Service Animals - Service Animals are animals required for physical or emotional assistance by a person who is disabled (e.g., a seeing-eye dog or a dog for the deaf) is not considered a pet, but will be subject to reasonable regulations.

It is a reasonable accommodation for housing providers to allow tenants with disabilities to live with a service animal in order to meet their disability-related needs. A service animal usually is defined as "any animal that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability." Fair housing laws consider "companion" animals to be a type of service animal.

TENANT SELECTION PLAN

- (a) Dogs are the most common service animals, but other species are used (for example, cats or birds). Service animals may be any breed, size or weight.
 - (b) There is no legal requirement for service animals to be visibly identified (no special collar or harness needed) or to have documentation (no license, certification or identification papers needed).
 - (c) Service animals are not considered to be pets. A person with a disability uses a service animal as an auxiliary aid -- similar to the use of a cane, crutches or wheelchair. For this reason, fair housing laws require that housing providers permit the use of a service animal by an individual with a disability despite “no pet” rules.
 - (d) Pet deposits or fees cannot be charged for service animals.
 - (e) All households with pets are subject to the Companion and Service Animals Policy.
- D. Obligation to Fulfill the Terms of the Lease. All applicants must fulfill the terms of the lease (with or without 3rd party assistance), particularly concerning:
- 1. Timely payment of rent and other charges;
 - 2. Maintaining premises in safe and sanitary condition;
 - 3. Not interfering with management or quiet enjoyment of the property by others.
- E. Housing Cooperatives. Applicants for membership in housing cooperatives must be interviewed by the appropriate committee of the Board of Directors for final approval after having met all other criteria.

XXIII. REJECTED APPLICATIONS

- A. General Guidelines and Criteria. Applicants will be rejected for any of the following:
- 1. Failure to present all members of the family at the full family interview (or some other time acceptable to management) prior to completion of Initial Certification;
 - 2. Blatant disrespect, disruptive or anti-social behavior toward management, the property or other residents exhibited by an applicant or family member any time prior to move-in (or a demonstrable history of such behavior);
 - 3. A negative landlord or other reference, encompassing failure to comply with the lease, poor payment history, poor housekeeping habits, eviction for cause; or criminal activity outlined above;
 - 4. A negative credit or criminal report (see attached “Grounds For Denial” and Sections IX and XII above);
 - 5. Falsification of any information on the application;
 - 6. Eligibility income exceeding the maximum allowed for the specific program;
 - 7. Family composition not appropriate for available bedroom size (see Section VI above);
 - 8. Failure to update application for the waiting list within specified time when notified.
 - 9. Other good cause: including, but not limited to, failure to meet any of the selection criteria in this document.
- B. Offer of an Apartment. If an applicant declines an available apartment when notified, he/she will be offered a second unit when available. If an applicant declines an apartment a second time, his/her application will be removed from the waiting list. After receiving the notification of unit availability, applicants have five days to respond to management regarding the available apartment. If there is no response, the offer will have been declined by the applicant. If there are verifiable mitigating medical reasons that prevent you from moving at the time of offer, you will receive another unit offer.

TENANT SELECTION PLAN

- C. Written Notice. If an applicant is rejected, management will promptly notify the applicant in writing explaining in the notice:
 1. The specifically stated reason(s) for the rejection; and that
 2. The applicant has a right to respond to the owner in writing or request a meeting within 14 days to dispute the rejection;
 3. Persons with disabilities have the right to request reasonable accommodations to participate in the informal hearing process;
 4. Any meeting with the applicant to discuss the applicant’s rejection must be conducted by a member of the owner’s staff who was not involved in the initial decision to deny admission or assistance;
 5. Prior to making a final decision to reject an applicant, the Property will consider mitigating circumstances and evaluate reasonable accommodations and/or structural modifications which might make rejection unnecessary;
 6. Within five (5) business days of the owner response or meeting, the owner must advise the applicant in writing of the final decision on eligibility;
 7. If an applicant feels they have been discriminated against based on a disability they may contact the local 504 Coordinator, Mari Tustin (831) 438-5725.

XXIV. VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

- A. Background. The Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 protects residents who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them. In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Management will not penalize victims of domestic violence, stalking, dating violence, or rape.
- B. Key Points. Some key points provided in the Act include:
 1. A potential resident who certifies they were the victim of domestic violence may be allowed to be admitted even with poor credit and poor landlord evaluations if he/she can show those negative factors were caused by domestic violence.
 2. It assured that victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, etc., can have access to the criminal justice system without facing eviction.
 3. Where someone is abusive to other members of the household, only the abuser may be evicted. Furthermore, the standards for eviction due to imminent threat have been strengthened.
 4. Residents in assisted housing who face violence may be allowed early lease termination for a matter of safety.
 5. Victims must certify their status as victims and that the incident in question was a bona fide incident of domestic violence by presenting appropriate documentation to the Property Manager. Nothing prevents a victim who has committed a crime or violated a lease from being denied, evicted or terminated.
